

NRG HBCU
ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE
SCHOLARSHIP

NRG advocates for an inclusive, diverse, and accepting community. The NRG Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) Academic Excellence Scholarship, administered by the Thurgood Marshall College Fund (TMC), not only helps to bridge financial gaps for students but also provides career development and networking opportunities. SCHOLARSHIP ELIGIBILITY

Students interested in applying must be accepted as full-time students at Texas Southern University or Prairie View A&M University. Other requirements include:

- Enrollment as a full-time incoming junior or senior as of the forthcoming fall 2024 semester
- Major in STEM, Marketing, Business, Communication, Finance, Accounting, or Law
- A record of academic excellence (3.0+ GPA)
- Participation in non-academic activities, including school-based extracurriculars, volunteer work, employment, sports, or any combination of out-of-class achievement
- Must be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident

INCREASING ACCESSIBILITY

Founded in 1987, the Thurgood Marshall College Fund (TMC) is the nation's largest organization exclusively representing the Black college community. Their programs lead to 97% of TMC scholars graduating from college. Our partnership with TMC through the NRG HBCU Academic Excellence Scholarship will help further our dual efforts to create opportunities for high-achieving, low-resource students, and strengthen relationships in the communities where we live and work.
